

Partnership Agreement

Digital Asia Hub and the Faculty of Communication Arts, Chulalongkorn University, agree to be conference partners for “The Making of Misinformed Choice: Disinformation in the Context of Elections in the Asia Pacific region”, which will be held in Bangkok, Thailand on 30 and 31 October, 2023.

This conference aims to serve as a platform for representatives from academia, researchers, students, business organizations and civil society. The interactive two-day workshop will be a closed-door event with staff from Digital Asia Hub and the Bertelsmann Stiftung. The program will include:

- Sharing of initial insights and findings from the research project;
- Input from experts and practitioners from Southeast, South, and East Asia; and
- Working sessions to discuss pressing challenges and solutions.

We intend to invite select key stakeholders from government, media, and industry based in Bangkok, Thailand, to attend one session which will be designed to be public.

Digital Asia Hub will ensure the following:

- Invitation of all participants for the two-day workshop
- Opportunity for a representative to present welcome remarks
- Social media promotion of the partnership through Digital Asia Hub’s networks.
- Promotional materials distribution to conference participants
- Tea breaks and luncheons for participants during the two-day event

Faculty of Communication Arts, Chulalongkorn University will provide:

- Workshop venue for about 40 participants on Oct 31
- Provide a backdrop and conference facilities for the workshop
- Promotion of the partnership through Chulalongkorn University’s networks.

Malavika Jayaram
Executive Director
Digital Asia Hub

Assoc.Prof. Preeda Akarachantachote
Dean, Faculty of Communication Arts
Chulalongkorn University